

The Families First Breakfast Benefit

Celebrating 30 Years

November 16, 2018
Mandarin Oriental Hotel
776 Boylston Street
7:00 - 9:00 AM

You can give parents the power to help their children thrive!

Families First has been improving the lives of parents and children for more than 30 years.

When you support Families First, you give parents a critical balance of knowledge, skills, and support that allows them to build strong relationships with their kids and set them up for long-term success.

Parents in under-resourced areas often experience high levels of stress and isolation, which is proven to have negative effects on children's learning, behavior, and well-being. But a stable, nurturing relationship lays the foundation for a child's successful future.

The Families First Breakfast Benefit: Celebrating 30 Years!

The Breakfast is a great opportunity to support Families First's critical work and meet parents whose lives and families have been transformed by Families First's programs. Guests will also hear from our experts and take home skills for their own parenting.

Come together with friends and colleagues while changing parents' and children's lives for the better!

Please join us!
